Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum

John Dewald, Claremont McKenna College

Graduation Year
2017

Date of Submission
4-2017

Document Type
Campus Only Senior Thesis

Degree Name
Bachelor of Arts

Department
Literature

Reader 1
Kevin Moffett

Terms of Use & License Information
Terms of Use for work posted in Scholarship@Claremont

Rights Information
© 2017 John M Dewald

Abstract
Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum is the first edition of a book for all audiences but especially targeting children. The story follows Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum as they explore wonderland, encountering famous characters including the Queen of Hearts, the Caterpillar, the Mad Hatter, the March Hare, and the White Rabbit, as well as a set of new characters at well. The account is entirely fictional, and any character or event that bares any resemblance to a real person or something that happened in real life is completely and only a coincidence. I would like to give a special thanks to all my friends that helped in the writing process; I would write an extensive list, but not everyone has a facebook and I don't want to spell anyone's name wrong. Thanks guys. The book is meant to be a fun and light read; enjoy.

Recommended Citation
Dewald, John, "Tweedle-Dee and Tweedle-Dum" (2017). CMC Senior Theses. 1631.
https://scholarship.claremont.edu/cmc_theses/1631

Additional Files
JDewald Cover Page Thesis.docx (12 kB)